STUDENTS FROM MT. PLEASANT school district who attend classes in Washougal these past few days have been riding through high piles of snow, including this huge drift, now familiar to students living on Mt. Pleasant road east of Washougal, coming into town in school bus piloted by John Carver.

— Post-Record photo by Goodale.